

Favorite Wrestler Ever

More general chat. Who is your favorite wrestler ever?

My pick is generally well known but here you are: Mick Foley. I've always loved the whole Rocky character and how he's never been able to be held down. Also the idea of multiple personalities is a great perk as instead of having a guy have a new character and then just abandon the old one, you have a guy whose gimmick was he had a bunch of gimmicks. That's a brilliant reversal of the idea and I've always loved it.

Your picks?