

What Got You Into Wrestling?

Simple question. What got you into the grand sport (yes sport) of pro wrestling?

My mom watched for years as we live in an area that let her see such guys as Jerry Lawler. I remember hearing her talk about him when I was like 3 and she took me to house shows as a baby. I know I saw Andre the Giant once interfere in a match between Earthquake and Jim Neidhart. Also the whole Hulk Hogan thing got me more into it than anything else.

Your version?
