

Wrestlemania #8: Would Hogan vs. Flair Have Been Better?

We got a classic in Savage vs. Flair, but would Hogan vs. Flair have been better? As big as it would have been, I'm thinking no. The problem with it would have been Hogan getting the win, which would be anticlimactic, especially since he was considering retirement. The match we got was going to be hard enough to top so it's hard to complain.

Thoughts?
