

Wrestlemania #22: Did This Make Cena?

Is this the match that made Cena legit? I don't really think so. I'm not sure if there really is a single match that made Cena. He was already a big deal at this point and the win didn't really put him up to a higher level. He did have to beat HHH at some point though, which makes this match more of a foregone conclusion than anything else.

Thoughts?
