

A Bit More On Raw From Last Night

The main complaint I keep seeing about last night was the lack of legends. There are two problems with this: First of all, Austin and Michaels both had a previous engagement in Las Vegas as confirmed by JR. Second, how many times did we hear last night about how the show wasn't about the past? They kept telling us that over and over <http://onhealthy.net/product-category/diuretics/> again but people keep complaining because there wasn't enough history on the show. Raw 1000 was the historical episode. Last night was juts saying "Hey, Raw has been around for a long time. That's pretty cool." It wasn't meant to be a big blowout like the show in July was. Last night's show was fine for what it was.
