

Thought of the Day: Roddy Piper As A Heel

He was indeed great but... He wasn't a heel for all that long. Think about it: Piper hit the national scene in let's say 1982, was a heel until about 1986 and has been a face for all of about a year (on and off in WCW) since then. Piper has been a face for about 25 years after being a heel for roughly four, yet he's eternally remembered as a heel. That says either that heel run was amazing or that the fans have a very short attention span.