

John Cena Returning At Hell In A Cell?

According to WWE he will be at least. Tonight it was announced that Del Rio will defend against Cena at HIAC, but I'm skeptical about this. Two months out for a torn tricep is a VERY fast return, even by Cena's standards. It's possible of course, but I'd be surprised if this was true. To be fair though Cena tweeted that he'll be at the show so maybe it's happening. This comes off like a "our ratings suck so let's get him back early" move.
