

Thought of the Day: On Sheamus And Pants

Seriously. If you can stand to think about it, last year Sheamus stole Del Rio's car and went on a joyride around San Antonio. During that scene, he was wearing a Sheamus t-shirt and black jeans. The thing is, that made him look far more intimidating and serious, which is what the segment needed. Sheamus, like many other wrestlers, has a physical attribute that makes them look less than intimidating. Also it doesn't help that he's often in wrestling trunks.

The point is, at times wearing street clothes can help a segment quite a bit.
