

The Greatest Night Of My Life

I'm back at the hotel and still not back down to earth. A very, very quick summary. Top 3 Mania ever, maybe even higher.

I have never freaked out more than when the glass shattered.

The place was STUNNED when the three count went down. I literally couldn't move.

I became a Daniel Bryan guy and I have a piece of the confetti.

More when I can remember what planet I'm on.
