

Watched The Austin Documentary

The one on the Network. He has like four so I have no idea which is which. This one runs two and a half hours and is REALLY good. It takes you through the entire Austin story and has Austin looking back on his entire career. The more I watch and listen to Austin the more in awe I am of how great he was and is to this day. The stuff from after the shows ended made me want to go get the After The Show DVD. Well worth checking out if you have the time. The documentary that is, but the DVD probably is as well.
