

WWE Trivia Game Site

You might have heard me talk about Sporcle before. Sporcle is a really fun and addictive trivia site with quizzes about everything, ranging from word games to Harry Potter to countries of the world. Well now they have a WWE section which I use to kill time on a daily basis. I can highly recommend the random button, though it's incredibly addictive. There's also TNA stuff in there but it's limited as you would expect. Check it out.
