

Dusty Rhodes Passes Away

As confirmed by WWE.com. I can't process this one. Dusty was 69 years old and I haven't seen a cause yet.

Dusty is best remembered as a rambling fat man but make no mistake about it: he was one of the biggest stars in the 1970s and one of the greatest talkers of all time. If you somehow haven't seen it, go find his Hard Times promo.

I'll likely have more to say on this when I can get it through my head.
