Since most of us have little to no idea what most of this means, here's a quick summary:

- Money is mostly up across the board, save for DVDs, likely due to the Network and WWE Studios because....well because it's WWE Studios.
- The Network now has 1.2 million subscribers. It hits India next week and German/Japan in January, which should boost numbers even more.
- 3. Revenue is up 38% overall from this quarter last year, which is quite good.
- 4. Stock is down over 10% today because the stock market is screwy and there's almost no such thing as good enough.
