

Wrestlemania XXXIII Preview: Intercontinental Title: Dean Ambrose vs. Baron Corbin

It started last year.

I could see this one being added to the pre-show as they need three matches on there to loosen up some time on the main show. This is the feud built around Ambrose eliminating Corbin from the Elimination Chamber, causing Corbin to CRUSH HIM WITH A FORKLIFT, which meant an Intercontinental Title match at Wrestlemania instead of, you know, death or a lawsuit or something.

I see no reason whatsoever for Ambrose to keep the title here so we'll go with Corbin winning. He won the battle royal last year and has hit the ground running on the main roster. It's high time he won something other than the battle royal though and the Intercontinental Title sounds like a great place to start. Ambrose certainly doesn't need the thing so let's give it to Corbin and see what he can do out of it (which likely means a bunch of losses but trying is better than nothing).
