

Wrestlemania XXXIII Preview: Miz/Maryse vs. John Cena/Nikki Bella

Dang it....I might like this match.

To say this one has gone through a range of emotions is an understatement. Depending on who you believe, there was a chance this was supposed to be Cena vs. Undertaker (I'm not sure I buy that) or just a singles match between Miz and Cena. All I know for sure is I've gone from dreading this match to seeing it be something actually worthwhile due to some INCREDIBLE promos. Miz has been on so much of a roll lately and I've started to like him even more than I did before.

That being said, I don't see a real chance for Miz and Maryse. I can live with Cena and Bella winning if Maryse is the one taking the fall (it's not like she has anything of note to lose) but I have a bad feeling it winds up with a double STF for the finish. As long as Miz isn't the one looking up at the lights at the end of the match, I'm pretty good. I mean, aside from the marriage proposal which is likely happening despite most fans having zero interest in seeing it.
