

Wrestlemania XXXIII Preview: Raw World Title: Goldberg vs. Brock Lesnar

Where's my stopwatch?

We had to get here eventually. I've said the same thing since "Survivor Series 2016": I have no idea why I'm supposed to be interested in seeing them fight again. Fans don't seem interested in seeing either of them and they especially don't need the title to make this story work (really, it's the same thing with or without the title) so I have no idea why we're seeing this again other than "well we started it so we have to finish it".

Despite recent rumors that WWE thinks Goldberg dropping the belt is too obvious, I think that's what happens and yes, I think it goes more than two minutes. After nine or ten minutes, they'll do a spear and Jackhammer but Lesnar kicks out, stunning Goldberg. He'll try again and get caught, this time into an F5 for the pin. It also doesn't go on last, as it probably shouldn't.
