

Wrestlemania XXXIII

Preview: Smackdown Women's Title: Six Pack Challenge

Maybe the swerve of the night.

With Asuka retaining the NXT Women's Title at "Takeover: Orlando", I have almost no idea who is going to win here. I can't imagine they'll throw Nikki Bella in there again and as much as I'd love to see Alexa Bliss retain the title, I have a feeling we're getting Naomi winning the title again for the big hometown pop, because, and I know I say this a lot, Naomi winning the title is suddenly this huge emotional moment, especially in her hometown.

That being said, I think Carmella actually gets the title here. WWE has a very strong tendency to throw in a major curveball and this seems to be a great option. While I think they'll throw in some names as there's no guarantee that the match will be limited to six, I don't think any of the surprises (whoever they may be) will win the title. I'll take Carmella in the swerve of the night.
