

Wrestlemania XXXIII

Preview: US Title: Chris Jericho vs. Kevin Owens

All this over a list.

I want to buy this feud a sandwich. They've built this up so, so well with the List of Owens reveal being one of the best turns I've seen since.....oh geez since Batista turned on Rey Mysterio, and this was much better than that. The fact that they waited until this past week to have Jericho put Owens on the List was a great bonus for the whole thing and made it even more awesome. I don't remember the last time I liked a feud this much but it's blown everything else away as far as storytelling.

I'll take Owens to win here in the logical conclusion before they do a big, violent rematch with Owens winning again to send Jericho off to tour with Fozzy. Either way, this match has the potential to really steal the show and should be one of the better things on it, just due to how good both of them are in the first place.
