

Back on the PPW Podcast

This is one of my favorite shows to be on as the host is one of the best read fans I've ever talked to. We're going over all things Summerslam for an hour with a look at this year's card plus our favorite matches and shows from history. Check it out as it's definitely a fun show that I had a good time doing with a very easy to listen to host.