

Need Some Questions To Answer

So starting this Saturday, I'm going to be doing a weekly Ask KB column over at Wrestlingrumors.net. I'll be taking a variety of questions and writing out some longer form answers with more historical context etc. Therefore, I need some stuff to answer and as luck would have it, I have an awesome audience who knows what kinds of things to ask. Therefore, I'm looking for some combination of the following:

Trivia

How I would book things/where I see things going

General questions about wrestling

Anything else you guys would like me to answer about wrestling

As usual, any era or company is fair game. I'll post a link to the column once it's completed and posted this coming Saturday. Ask your questions in the comments.
