

Heading To England For A Few Weeks

It's time to go see the in-laws again so I'll be down for a bit. The time situation won't let me do any live shows while I'm gone but I'll be doing them ASAP as I'll have some down time over there. I already have all the columns and 2004 shows written in advance so they'll be up as usual. I'll try to throw out some old school stuff to fill in some of the gaps.
