Episodes 51 and 52

So these are a little late but they're worth listening to. We have a double shot this week with the first special episode called Talkover, which is an NXT centered show featuring NorCal talking with a pair of guys from the UK.

As a bonus, the guys stick around and talk about the upcoming Royal Rumble (yeah I'm a bit late posting these):

These guys are hilarious and well worth your time to listen. Check them out.
