

I'm Going Back To Wrestlemania

Picked up the ticket in the presale. I skipped last year due to New York but I'm heading to Tampa next year and flying this time so I'll be back faster instead of being half asleep for three days from exhaustion.

As usual, I couldn't do this kind of thing without you all. I get to do this because of all of you and the last few months have seen things explode, to the point where I've been able to do a lot of things that I've been wanting to do for a long time now. We're coming up on nine years of me doing this and it's going places I never would have believed possible. Thank you all so much for letting me do this and I can't believe it keeps getting better and better.
