

CM Punk Fired From AEW

It had to happen at some point, but my goodness Collision is going to be a lot more boring now. At the end of the day, Punk didn't do himself any favors and completely overreacted a lot of the time, but there were a lot of instances of him reacting to someone saying or doing something stupid. This isn't a case of one guy going nuts, but he is one of the constants you see in the whole ordeal.
