

In Indianapolis For Fastlane

As you might guess, the review won't be up ASAP. I'll be coming back to the hotel and doing the show as fast as I can, wifi depending. Collision will probably not be up until tomorrow.

I Think I Fixed The Scrolling Problem

I'm pretty sure I found the setting that was messing with things. Please let me know if it's working on your end so I can know if I have more to do. Thank you all for your patience as my goodness that would have driven me crazy.

Site Scrolling Issues

So as you might have noticed (but hopefully not), a lot of the reviews aren't scrolling properly. This seems to be a recent issue and I'm trying to see what can be done to fix it. At the end of the day, I'm not a tech guy and really don't know what I'm doing. One thing that has worked, at least in Firefox, is turning on Reader Mode, which strips away everything else and leaves just the text. That's just a stopgap workaround for now though and I'm still looking to see what it is. I'm sorry for the issues but I'm just now seeing what is wrong in the first place.

Comments Section Acting Up Again

Some of the comments are being sent into the spam filter again. I'm keeping an eye on it but if your comment doesn't show up for some reason, please bear with me for a bit as it went through. I'll just need to find them elsewhere.

About The Last Week

So I learned something this week: don't review wrestling shows when you're on some strong antibiotics and cough syrup. I've been looking back at some of the things I put up and I have pretty much no memory of putting them together. I remember watching the shows and writing the reviews, but the details are not quite how I remember them going. Apparently I was wrong when I said the medicine didn't affect me as....yeah there are some bad misfires in there. I'm still on some of them for the next few days but I'm mostly out of the woods. I'm sorry in advance if there are even more head scratch inducing moments than usual.

Pick A Summerslam For Me To Redo

It's that time again as I'll be doing a pair of Summerslam redos. As always, I'll be doing last year's edition, but you get to pick the other. You can pick any save for the following, as I've ever done them recently or too often over the years:

2007

Vote in the comments below and pick what I do next.

Forget boredom or loneliness, by enjoying online slot fun anywhere at any time

You return to your condo after another business trip happy with more successful meetings, building relations for your company. It's a job that you love, even if time on the road can sometimes be tiring and lonely. At least you get to see places that some of your friends back home would give anything to visit.

Only this time, your trip was more enjoyable than ever after the discovery of something that will brighten up your stay in the quietest of locations, at whatever time of the day. All thanks to finding the brilliant company that has introduced you to online slot pg games.

Suddenly arriving late at night when everything is closed, or in a town with little in the way of entertainment or gambling options is no problem. You've enjoyed a modest punt all your adult life and have missed it for a while. Now your thirst is quenched through the app on your Android device, which allows you to play at any time in any place. That's a great feeling when you know you don't have to rush around to get somewhere before it closes. You can have a shower in your room, pour yourself a drink, and then sit back and have some fun while remembering to drink plenty of water every day.

And it's fun all the way on the selection of slots on offer, which provide the most incredible 3D graphics, which are captivating enough. But, then when you throw in the brilliant sounding background music and you have an instant entertainment package all in one place.

The best bit for any gambler is the chance to win and win big. Your slots offer you just that, with huge jackpots being accumulated by the mass of customers all playing, which has led to some groundbreaking incentives, bonuses, and promotions being thrown your way. You don't have to outlay too much cash either, as you can win big with a minimum stake.

The games don't require any skill to win, and you found the free trial spins a lovely way for the company to say hello, as were the instructions that are available. You genuinely felt valued and the way and speed that your account is dealt with, which includes instant deposits and withdrawals is a great service. You have no worries about trying to find an ATM to draw out cash, as everything is carried out digitally, which is far safer than heading home late at night with your winnings.

Sometimes your games can be interrupted by important business calls late at night, but that's not a problem as you can continue exactly where you left off, as well as being able to change your stakes between plays, or alternatively you can let the reels spin in automatic mode.

Lonely boring nights away from home are a thing of the past now that you have online slots to entertain you and allow you to win great prizes for the smallest of stakes. That is a road you love travelling down!

Heading Out For A Bit

Hey everyone.

The family and I are heading to England for the next few weeks so things are going to be a bit off schedule. I'll have some downtime while I'm there so I'll be able to catch up on the shows, but I won't be able to do anything live. We fly out today and get back on May 4 so please bear with me for the time being. I'll be getting to all of the shows at some point, but the normal schedule is going to be out the window. I'm sorry for throwing everything off.

It's Wrestlemania Week (Schedule Update)

Dang it feels good to say that. It's the biggest week of the year for wrestling and it is going to be the busiest week I have by far. I have my schedule ready and from Wednesday – Monday, I'll be covering 22 shows, which might go up to 26 if some more are streaming. The regular schedule is going to be more than a bit off from Thursday – Saturday but if it is a show I usually do, it will be posted at some point, hopefully less than 24 hours after it ended. I'm really not sure what order they are going to go up in, but it is mostly going to be whatever I can find/get to next. It's going to be a crazy few days, but I'll have everything I can for you as fast as I can.

Comments

They're still not working and it's pretty clear that the version I have in now isn't working. From what I can tell, the new ad system is messing with it and sending perfectly good comments to the spam folder. The problem is I have no idea how to fix that, so I'm going to have to find something new. Disqus is an option, and while I've never liked it, it might be the only solution around. I'm absolutely seeing the comments, but this whole thing of them not displaying until I check them isn't working, either for me or you all. I'll figure out something as soon as I can and I'm sorry again for them messing up.
