

New Bi-Weekly Column

I'll be writing a column called KB's Corner every other Sunday for a recap on Wrestlezone.com. I'll only be linking them here so I don't steal the traffic from Wrestlezone. The first one was up on December 8 so there will be a new one up this coming Sunday.

Up first: Christmas Presents For The Wrestling Fan

This is a link to just my page but check out the rest of it too.

Christmas Sale On E-Books Still Going

Like everyone else, I've got a sale going for the rest of the year on my ebooks. This is going to run from now through the end of the year. There are three options to pick from:

Any two for $7 (Usually $8)

Any three for $10 (Usually $12)

ALL SIX for $15 (Usually $24)

The books to pick from are:

Complete 1998 Monday Night Raw

Complete 2001 Monday Night Raw

History of the WWE Championship

History of Starrcade

Complete Monday Nitro Volume 1 (1995-1996)

History of In Your House (new)

This will be done a bit differently than usual. Since it would be nearly impossible to do this through Amazon, I'm going to handle this myself. If you're interested in one of these, send me an e-mail at kbwrestlingreviews@hotmail.com and we'll set it up through Paypal.

If you could, drop me a comment on here so I'll make sure to see your e-mail.

Special Christmas Review Coming

It's something people have asked for for a long time now and it'll be up on the holiday. Before the speculation begins, it's not a Christmas show but you better enjoy it anyway.

The Hart Grapevine

It's a site about the Hart Family and is either something official or a REALLY big fan site. Either way their Twitter is followed by Natalya so there's something to them at least.

Either way, they posted one of my reviews on their site so they seem cool to me. Here's a link to their page.

New Series: On This Day II

Since On This Day is nearing the end of its first year and has gone well so far, I'll be bringing it back next year but with a tweek. Next year instead of a show, it'll be focused on a single wrestler. I'm hoping that it'll be someone whose birthday is on that day but in case there's no one on that day I'll pick someone who did something special on that day. I'll be posting my thoughts on the person as well as reviews of a few of their matches, ranging from famous to less famous. This should be more interesting than some of the lame shows I've put up before. Hopefully I can keep up with the schedule on these unlike this year.

Hope you enjoy it,

Happy Anniversary

To me. The first post ever on the site was three years ago today.

Good grief I sucked back then.

Happy Thanksgiving

Thank you all for taking the time to read my ramblings on here. The ad revenue and ebook sales are making it more and more likely that I can do this as my full time job every month as the sales have been consistently going up. I'll keep putting them out as long as you guys want them. Thank you all for sticking with me and I'll be around as long as you want me to be.

New E-Book: KB's History of
In Your House

KB's History of In Your House

My newest book is pretty self-explanatory. It's the complete history of In Your House, a WWF pay per view series that ran from May 1995 to April 1999. The series covers most of the New Generation and the first half of the Attitude Era and everything in between. There are some absolute masterpieces included in this series, ranging from the first Hell in a Cell to Canadian Stampede to Austin vs. Dude Love II to Shawn vs. Mankind and many others.

Also included is a look back at the story that kept the company afloat when WCW's boot was over the WWF's throat: the Border War. The majority of the story took place at In Your House, including the final blowoff in Calgary. There's also a good portion of the most famous feud of all time with the corporate Vince McMahon trying to suppress the rebellion being waged by Stone Cold Steve Austin. The feud defined the Attitude Era and carried the company to heights never believed possible.

In Your House was one of the most important pay per view series of all time and features some of the most important matches in the company's history. This new book looks at every single show in the series and includes detailed history and analysis of each show, broken down match by match and segment by segment. The book runs about 320 pages on a Kindle or about 170 single spaced pages in Word.

The book is available from Amazon for just and can be picked up in any country that has Amazon.

It can be found at the American Amazon here.

At the UK Amazon here.

And at the Canadian Amazon here.

If you're in another country and would like to pick it up, just search "KB's In Your House" and it should be the first thing that pops up.

If you don't have a Kindle or E-Reader, there are 100% free apps that can be downloaded from Amazon, found here. Please check it out and I hope you enjoy it.
