

A Rather Cool Facebook Page

<https://www.facebook.com/AB-Morales-A-Blog-About-Wrestling-Anime-Games-1391471394284210/>

This is a page run by AB Morales, who you should know from 787 Talk. He's smart on just about everything, including wrestling of course. Check him out and follow him because he's rather worth a read.

Remember That TNA Access Thing I Mentioned?

Well it's starting to come to fruition. One of the co-hosts of the show I've been on before got an interview with Jeff Jarrett, which can be heard here:

<http://www.broiledsports.com/2015/01/broiled-sports-exclusive-interview-w.html>

To help support their efforts to get more access like this (and potentially to have me getting the same access), check them out at:

i95sportsnetwork.com

Also make sure to like them on Facebook at:

And follow them on Twitter:

This is an actual possibility at this point and it would do them (and me) a lot of good to get some extra support behind them.

Thought Of The Day: Why Are You Doing That?

This is something that occurs to me a lot lately and something WWE is very bad at: everything that is done should be to either make you want to watch the TV show or make you want to buy the PPV. That's the point of the company: they should be trying to make you want to see more and preferably to make you want to pay to see it. Instead, it seems to be to do whatever whim the company is on at the moment. Instead things seem to be about pushing whatever their latest endeavor is to get them publicity. It's like they're focusing on everything but their in ring product if that makes sense. How many times do you see the company pushing the in ring product or a future match on the show? Now on the other hand, how many times do you hear something pushed that is about hearing something else about the product? As in hearing about Twitter, Tout, Facebook, the App etc. As in you're not hearing about the product, but about something that is about the product. That seems to be counter productive to me.

Major Changes Coming

I'm leaning heavily towards joining a network of sports sites which will result in a completely new layout and look for the site. I'll still own it and will be the only person uploading anything to it, but there's a very good chance that in the near future, things will look very differently around here. Also the comments system will probably be through Facebook.

Updated the Links Page, Added Facebook Link

As the title says I put in the link to the site's FB page. I only have it to advertise a bit and you can't comment on there anyway as it makes it easier for me to see comments if they're posted here. Please take a second to like my page so I can get my name out there a bit more. I'd appreciate it. You can like individual reviews if you want also. I'd appreciate it if you would.

Now On Facebook

This wasn't my idea as most of you know that I hate social media. Anyway there's a page for it now and I'll be looking into a way to automatically post links to it. If anyone knows how to do that please let me know.

<http://www.facebook.com/pages/kbwrestlingreviewscom/117930294974885>

Anyway it's there now so maybe it'll help me get some new blood here. Also note that the odds of me ever checking that page are about 1 in 104858759385965 so don't post something there that you want me to read.
