

Jim Cornette On TNA

I don't usually post stuff from interviews but this made me laugh out loud. I saw it in an interview from 411mania.com.

"You know they are changing their website, you haven't heard about this? You haven't heard about TNA changing their website? Instead of TNAWrestling.com it is going to be TNAWrestling.org because it's a non-profit organization."

I could listen to Jim Cornette rip on people for days.
