

Remember That TNA Access Thing I Mentioned?

Well it's starting to come to fruition. One of the co-hosts of the show I've been on before got an interview with Jeff Jarrett, which can be heard here:

To help support their efforts to get more access like this (and potentially to have me getting the same access), check them out at:

Also make sure to like them on Facebook at:

And follow them on Twitter:

This is an actual possibility at this point and it would do them (and me) a lot of good to get some extra support behind them.
