If you could, drop me a comment on here so I'll make sure to see your e-mail.

Hope you enjoy these,

New E-Book: KB's History of In Your House

My newest book is pretty self-explanatory. It's the complete history of In Your House, a WWF pay per view series that ran from May 1995 to April 1999. The series covers most of the New Generation and the first half of the Attitude Era and everything in between. There are some absolute masterpieces included in this series, ranging from the first Hell in a Cell to Canadian Stampede to Austin vs. Dude Love II to Shawn vs. Mankind and many others.

Also included is a look back at the story that kept the company afloat when WCW's boot was over the WWF's throat: the Border War. The majority of the story took place at In Your House, including the final blowoff in Calgary. There's also a good portion of the most famous feud of all time with the corporate Vince McMahon trying to suppress the rebellion being waged by Stone Cold Steve Austin. The feud defined the Attitude Era and carried the company to heights never believed possible.

In Your House was one of the most important pay per view series of all time and features some of the most important matches in the company's history. This new book looks at every single show in the series and includes detailed history and analysis of each show, broken down match by match and segment by segment. The book runs about 320 pages on a Kindle or about 170 single spaced pages in Word.

The book is available from Amazon for just and can be picked up in any country that has Amazon.

It can be found at the American Amazon here.

At the UK Amazon here.

And at the Canadian Amazon here.

If you're in another country and would like to pick it up, just search "KB's In Your House" and it should be the first thing that pops up.

If you don't have a Kindle or E-Reader, there are 100% free apps that can be downloaded from Amazon, found here.

Please check it out and I hope you enjoy it.

Free Matt Morgan Interview

No I didn't conduct it, but I work with people that did. Over at another site I work for, we have an exclusive hour long sitdown interview with Matt Morgan for free. All you have to do is sign up for our newsletter (free) which means you'll be sent breaking news updates and maybe one e-mail a week (possibly with something written by me in it). The guy that conducts the interview is a friend of mine and good at what he does so the interview is well worth checking out. Also make sure you check wrestlingrumors.net at least 857 times a day. They're fast, good, well done and smart. Not to mention I have at least five reviews up there a week so you know you'll get something good.

Check us out and catch the interview which is completely free.

Site Maintenance On Wednesday

The hosting company sent me an e-mail saying the site will be down for about thirty minutes on Wednesday. This shouldn't be anything complicated and things should be back up soon. If you try to access it and can't, everything is fine and I knew about it in advance. Check back in about half an hour and it should be running.

Something I've Wanted To Say For Over 20 Years

I'm going to Wrestlemania. Booked the hotel room today, non-refundable. Buying the ticket the day it goes on sale, along with a ticket to Axxess. I might take in the Raw the night after the show as well but I'm not sure.

I'm thrilled and I can't thank you all enough for supporting me as you have. You're the reason I can make this trip. Thank you all so much.

New E-Book: KB's Complete Monday Nitro Reviews Volume I

Yes I've done it again, this time with the first in a series Monday Nitro reviews. Volume I covers everything from the first episode through the end of 1996, which includes a lot of awesome moments and matches. These shows feature a long series of Eddie Guerrero vs. Chris Benoit matches, a bunch of world title matches and changes, the New Japan invasion, the debut of Chris Jericho, the Alliance to End Hulkamania, the reformation of the Four Horsemen, and of course the rise of the NWO in their dominance of WCW.

This was one of the most important times in wrestling history as the way wrestling was presented on television was changed forever. The days of an hour of squash matches a week were gone and the flagship show was now on Monday nights. The Monday Night Wars were underway and this show rocked Monday Night Raw to its core. These shows still hold up today and are well worth checking out.

The book is available from Amazon for just $4 and can be found in America here

In the UK here

And in Canada here

If you live in another country and have an Amazon specific to said country, just search KB's Nitro and it should be the only result that pops up.

If you don't have a Kindle, there are completely free apps you can download to any device imaginable which can be found from Amazon here.

Please check it out and I hope you enjoy it.

Thought of the Day: Make Their Jaw Drop

This is a tale of a Christmas from long ago. About eight years or so ago I was watching Tribute to the Troops when my dad came over. Now my dad is the kind of guy that doesn't impress easily. He thinks everything was cooler when he was younger and that very little entertainment today is actually entertaining. When he came over, John Cena was lifting Big Show up for the AA. My dad's jaw dropped and he was clearly impressed.

The moral to the story: show us something impressive that is going to catch some eyes, not the same stuff that is only going to interest people already watching. More on this topic when I have a bit more time.

Thank You All

Today I hit 1 million views. I can't believe I actually reached that point and thank you all for continuing to check out my stuff. I'll be here as long as you guys keep reading me. Thanks again.
