Austin's Podcast With Heyman

Checked it out today and while I won't go through it step by step, there was one thing that caught my attention. Near the end where Austin and Heyman teased a match against Lesnar next year at Wrestlemania (no I don't think it's happening but there's always a chance), Austin turned into the Rattlesnake in the blink of an eye. That sort of thing always amazes me as they just morph into a character like it's nothing. Foley is great at this sort of thing too and it goes along with what you hear old timers talk about: you're not playing a character. You ARE that character. It's a very different way of portraying someone and the old way is almost always the most effective.
