Heading To WrestleMania XLII? Check Out WRESTLE TOURS!

Hey everyone. This company reached out to me and I'm working with them to pass along some information about their services. I've seen this organization out there before and have even considered using them myself for one of my big Wrestlemania trips. They are absolutely legit and worth checking out, especially if you're not sure about how to set up a big wrestling outing. They have a great deal coming up for Wrestlemania XLII near Las Vegas and it is certainly worth a look. Give them a shot as this stuff can be VERY complicated if you do it on your own.

Happy Thanks Giving And Thank You

I just wanted to stop for a second and say thank you to everyone who takes the time to read my stuff. Whether you agree with what I say or think I'm a moron, I can't begin to express my gratitude to you enough. It means so much that you give me your time like this and I hope to be able to do better to keep earning it in the future. It's because of you all that I get to do this for a living and I couldn't ask for anything better. Thank you all and know that it means the world to me to have you all around.

Site Issues

As you might have seen (though most likely not), the site hasn't exactly been working. The hosting plan I had expired and for some reason it didn't renew. Apparently this is causing a lot of people to see a message saying the account has been suspended. This is on my end and not something that anyone has done wrong. I have renewed the hosting plan and hopefully it will be fixed up sooner rather than later. I am sorry as always for the issues and thank you for your patience.
