

Favorite Theme Song

Simple question: what is your favorite wrestling theme song? For me it's Real American. The song immediately tells you almost everything you need to know about Hogan. We get the American aspect and that he'll never quit. With today's rock music for almost everyone, it's hard to explain anything about them and it takes a lot away from them.

Your picks?